Support osteopathic medical mission work at AOA Convention

The National Osteopathic Medical Association (NOMA) will sponsor a health fair at the Las Vegas Rescue Mission on October 25 during the AOA's 2008 Annual Convention and Scientific Seminar Las Vegas.

With the help of the AOA and other service organizations, NOMA plans to hold health screenings for adults and children, with a clinic on site to provide the necessary follow-up care.

Since NOMA started this annual project, it has raised close to $17,000 for the homeless in various convention cities. NOMA is asking those attending the convention to consider giving a gift card from Wal-Mart or Target or a monetary donation to help the homeless in Las Vegas. For more information on the Las Vegas Rescue Mission, visit NOMA's Web site at www.vegasrescue.org or call Darrell Lynn Grace, DO, project manager for the NOMA, at (330) 759-0217.
